The Grand Chef

Fellow Voyageurs,

My first stop in the month was at Voiture 1541. This was their yearly fund raiser called Night at the Races. This was my second event at the night of the races. I urge every Voyageur to attend one of their nights at the races. You will have a night of enjoyment and have the opportunity to meet with other Voyageurs with in the state. They had a lot of Voyageurs from Voiture 1541 to make this night at the races a successful event. I want to thank Leon and Linda Hill with Robert Phillips and Janice Hartley for their hospitality that night. Calvin and Karen Bumgarner was also pleased with the function at the races.

At the Spring Grand Cheminot we had two distinguished guest, Sous Chef de Chemin de Fer Michael Robberstad and his wife La Presidente Nationale Joyce Robberstad. Michael had nothing but good things to say about the Grand du Missouri. Michael was very pleased in the Grand du Missouri membership. We all know that membership is all of our concern. That is why the Grand du Missouri is doing very well at this time. We owe a lot of the support from our Grand Chefs de Gare

Passé. The experience and knowledge that they share with their Voyageurs has helped us to be where we are in membership. I personally want to thank all the Grand Chefs de Gare Passé for their help during my term of office. Your help has put the Grand du Missouri in good standing with Nationale.

Grand Chef de Gare

Membership

I want to thank everyone who attended the Spring Wreck in Springfield and helped to make it a huge success. We wrecked 6 new PG's and I want to congratulate them for becoming new members in La Société. We are at 86.11% without the 6 new members. This will make our total 744 and a 113 from our goal. We currently have 18.6 Box Cars filled in our train but need 21.5 to be 100%. Let's get out there and get these next 3 box cars full. I know we can get this done. Keep up the good work.

Thanks for all you do.
Grand Chef de Train

Below you will see an article in the local Oakville paper about the Jefferson Barracks Ordnance Depot museum founded by Mike Brueckmann, Chef de Gare Passe of Voiture 38.

Jefferson Barracks Ordnance Depot features treasure trove of Weaponry

The recently opened Jefferson Barracks Ordnance Depot museum is a virtual treasure trove of military weaponry from the early 1900s through today.

The brainchild of retired Navy Cmdr. Mike Brueckmann of Oakville, the museum at 94 Worth Road officially opened last November and houses ordnance from all branches of the military – powder canisters, grenades, shells, missiles, torpedoes and bombs.

The 501©(3) tax-exempt museum leases the building, which at one time housed the Jefferson Barracks Football Club, from St. Louis County.

The museum features items Brueckmann has collected over the past 20 or so years.

Asked what prompted him to open the museum, he said, “I had all this stuff in my basement, and my wife was yelling at me to clean up the basement and clean up the garage. A friend of mine had a warehouse space and once we got the warehouse space, “Well, hey, we’ve got all this space to fill,” so we’ve still got more stuff sitting out in Arnold, but this is the big stuff (in the museum).”

Asked where he obtained all the pieces, Brueckmann said, “Everywhere...some shows, but the word gets out that I,m collecting, and I’ve actually walked out of the house in the morning and there’s something sitting out on the front lawn that showed up in the middle of the night...”

He spent four years on active duty in the Navy and 35 years in the Reserve.

“Then I got to do a lot of traveling that I wouldn’t normally with the Navy because I worked for the Seabees and I’d go around and inspect buildings in different towns and stuff like that and find stuff like this.”

“What are you guys going to do with that? You’re not going to throw it in the junk pile? Hold everything – ship it to this address,” he recalled.

During a recent tour of the museum, Brueckmann highlighted various pieces on display and the history behind them.

They are open from Wednesday through Sunday from 1100 to 1600 or 11:00 AM through 4:00PM.
